Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1 – 15 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites “an operation” on page 8, line 5. Is that referring to another operation or is it the same operation as recited in the preamble of the claim, on line 3? For the purpose of the examination, the examiner will assume that it is referring to the same operation on line 3.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5 – 7, 10 - 12 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lim (US. Pat. 6,430,640).

Regarding claim 1, Lim discloses a method for expediting an operation in a computer system (col. 15, lines 8 – 29), the method comprising:

maintaining an operating system task for performing an operation (col. 15, lines 8 – 29);
executing the operating system task at a low priority level prior to performing the operation (col. 15, lines 8 – 29); and raising the operating system task to a high priority level in order to perform the operation (col. 15, lines 8 – 29).

Regarding claim 2, Lim discloses the method of claim 1, wherein raising the operating system task to the high priority level in order to perform the operation comprises:

detecting a trigger condition indicating that the operation is to be performed (col. 15, lines 8 – 29); and raising the operating system task to the high priority level upon detecting the trigger condition (col. 15, lines 8 – 29).

Regarding claim 5, Lim disclose the method of claim1, further comprising:

lowering the operating system task to the low priority level upon completion of the operation (col. 15, lines 8 – 29).

Claims 6, 7, 10 – 12 and 15 are rejected on the same ground as stated above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 3, 4, 8, 9, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lim (US Pat. 6,430,640) in view of Applicant's admitted prior art.

Regarding claim 3, Lim did not clearly teach the operating system task is a routing task, and the trigger condition comprises receipt of a link state advertisement protocol message including link status information. Nevertheless, these limitations are taught in the applicant's admitted prior art, which can be found on page 1, lines 19 – 31. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made to incorporate these features, which admitted by the applicant's prior art to Lim's invention to provide the communication network with various types of routing protocol.

Regarding claim 4, Lim did not clearly teach the operation is Dijkstra shortest path computation utilizing the link status information received in the link state advertisement protocol message. Nevertheless, this limitation is taught in the applicant's admitted prior art, which can be found on page 1, lines 19 – 31. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made to include this teaching, which admitted by the applicant's prior art to Lim's invention to provide the system with the capability in determining the shortest route in the communication network.

Claims 8, 9, 13 and 14 are rejected on the same ground as stated above.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
